6 Questions: Challenging My Unhelpful Idea

 smartrecovery.org/smart-recovery-toolbox/6-questions-challenging-my-unhelpful-idea

1. What idea have I strongly and persistently held that I now realize to be the cause of many problems – emotional or otherwise – in my life?
2. What’s wrong with this idea? What makes it unrealistic, extreme, illogical and/or unreasonable?
3. How does this idea push me and others around? What are the consequences of doggedly holding on to this idea?
4. Is it helping me get what I want or hurting me?
5. Is there any proof to support this irrational and/or unhelpful idea?
6. Imagine that I’m trying to convince another person why it doesn’t make sense to think that way; what persuasive counterarguments would convince him or her?

Note to myself: I will try to notice when this old unhelpful idea seems to be at the root of some new distress. I will regularly read what I’ve written on this sheet to help myself think more clearly, feel better, and act more wisely.
